Day	Date	Activity
Tuesday	20 May	Informal Evening Reception: Embassy Suites Hotel
		Day 1 will be hosted at the conference hotel, Embassy Suites, Montgomery
Wednesday	21 May	Opening ceremony
		Keynote speaker: The evolving global landscape: what are the implications for business schools in cultivating global talent?
		NIBS networking: Introduction of new members to NIBS, showcasing student entrepreneurial talent, and benchmarking internationalisation with NIBS Accreditation
		High Speed Networking: Build your professional network
		Member Opportunities: Share your business school opportunites with the membership
		Business School Pedagogy and AI: teaching methods and practice within business schools, what can we learn from each other?
		NIBS informal networking: Informal networking at the business lounge of the Montgomery Biscuits baseball team. https://www.milb.com/montgomery
		Day 2 will be hosted at Troy University
Thursday	22 May	Business Breakfast: Informal networking
		Welcome to Troy
		Keynote speaker: "Cultivating Global Talent - an employer's perspective"
		David Gillingham Awards
		NIBS Research: showcase and share current research with peers
		NIBS AGM
		NIBS Gala Dinner: Join us for an unforgettable evening of Southern hospitality and charm at the NIBS Gala Dinner! Indulge in a mouthwatering spread of BBQ delicacies, enjoy live music, learn how to line dance on a picturesque country farm. (Please note, we will go directly from the university to the farm, casual dress and comfortable shoes are recommended) https://www.dreamfieldfarms.com/
Friday	23 May	Montgomery's Civil Rights History Tour: Montgomery, Alabama, played a crucial role in the American Civil Rights Movement as the home of Rosa Parks, "the Mother of the Freedom Movement," who was instrumental in the Montgomery bus boycott. This tour will explore the significant museums, locations and events that shaped the fight for equality and justice. https://legacysites.eji.org/